

Please do not change or impede the NJ Do Not Call law as it functions today. I am very aware of the impact this law has made on business -- I myself am a realtor -- and know that there are less intrusive methods of "doing business."